

30 Incredibly Easy Ways to Keep Kids Busy After School

- Play a classic yard game.
- Build a nature fort in the backyard.
- Create something cool out of cardboard.
- Look for butterflies.
- No paint brushes? No problem. Here are 10 art projects that don't need bristles.
- Go on a scavenger hunt that requires quiet time.
- Make a puppet theater.
- Read a book that inspires innovation.
- Get crafty! These project have five supplies or less
- Practice your pirate vocab.
- Make your TP roll go the distance and use it in a project.
- Set up an imaginary world of play and watch the afternoon fly by.
- Make a pet rock.
- Arrange a creative play date with friends.
- Give their brain muscles a boost with easy memory games
- Make a toy car garage.
- Let your little magicians impress you with seven easy magic tricks.
- Spice up coloring time with a new and cool coloring book.
- Explore the art of image projection with a DIY pinhole camera.
- Discover easy ways to upcycle your scrap paper.
- Run relays in the backyard.
- Feel the force with a Star Wars-themed activity.
- Give their green thumbs a workout with eight easy gardening ideas.
- Share some wacky animal facts.
- Explore science with simple outdoor experiments.
- Have a dance party.
- Whip up a batch of your own bubbles.
- Try out a new subscription box.
- Make math fun with these easy games.

